VERDI 2001 - THE SEASON

CONTINUES:

Music

Verdi's celebrations continue to commemorate the centennial of this great Italian composer's death. RAI Trade presents four operas in the second quarter of this year, two of which have rarely been performed. And once again, two wonderful locations are being used: Verona's Arena and La Scala Opera House in Milan.

RIGOLETTO

Music (210')

at the Arena, Verona. A great new show was the pinnacle of this season's programme for one of the most famous open-air playhouses in the world. The opera was filmed live on July 21, 2001 and is available now. The cast is spectacular, and there is also a backstage documentary which reveals the opera's secrets.

LA TRAVIATA

Music

at the Royal Playhouse, Parma. New stage production of Verdi's masterpiece, which was recorded in July.

I MASNADIERI

at the Teatro Massimo, Palermo. Another lesser-known opera by Verdi, it was presented in Palermo in a new stage production by Pier'Alli, a great Italian artist. For all lovers of the opera, this is a very rare production.
